ABOUT THE DESIGNER

Mable Tan is a surface pattern designer, based in Melbourne, Australia. She loves whimsical, folk artsy and colourful patterns and is a bit of a Scandiphile – having lived in Sweden for a year.

Her creative career started as a journalist, fashion stylist, travel writer, a fine art photographer and now, a surface pattern designer. Mable is constantly on the lookout for anything that catches her eye and makes her say, “Whoa...”.

As an all-round creative person, Mable loves devoting her time and energy to creating beautiful things – as it gives her a sense of joy and peace.

Mable’s various works has been published in Quilts and More (USA), Flow Magazine (Netherlands), Good Housekeeping (USA), Sunday Style (Herald Sun), The Age, Sydney Morning Herald (Australia).

“Mable Tan takes simple motifs and turns them into dynamic, memorable accents perfect for infusing a room with a frolicsome feel.” - Houzz
